SUBJECT: Discuss and File Report of Investments for the Month Ending November 30, 2010, Including Market Values for Investments for the Month

RECOMMENDATION: Discuss and File

FISCAL/MANDATES IMPACT: None

DISCUSSION:

The average daily portfolio balance for the month of November amounted to $1.8 billion. The portfolio yield for the month of November was 1.10%. The weighted average days to maturity increased 27 days to 378 days. The total net monthly earnings were $1.6 million. The portfolio has been structured to satisfy the anticipated cash flow needs of the participants. The investment practices and portfolio holdings are in compliance with the investment policy.

The portfolio has been managed with the stated objectives of safety, liquidity and earning a competitive rate of return, outlined in the Statement of Investment Policy. In striving to maintain the primary objective, safety of principal, the County portfolio has received a rating of AAf by Standard & Poor's, the highest possible ranking given by the agency. Regarding the secondary objective, maintaining sufficient liquidity to meet cash flow needs, the portfolio is rated S1+, also the highest ranking given by S&P. In light of the first two objectives, the portfolio has on balance outperformed its benchmarks, satisfying the final objective, that of earning a competitive rate of return.

The Fed began its second round of Quantitative Easing this month with the purchases of Treasury securities in the open market. This effort to keep rates low and thereby support increased economic activity has come at a time when we are actually beginning to see some small gains in the economy. One of the interesting outcomes has been a general rise in interest rates, despite the Fed's active intervention to keep rates low.

The Fed's reasoning for maintaining its active participation in the markets was laid out in the statement announcing the decision to keep the Fed Funds rate in the range of 0% to 0.25%. In the release, the Fed provided the following reasons:

...the pace of recovery in output and employment continues to be slow. Household spending is increasing gradually, but remains constrained by high unemployment, modest income growth, lower housing wealth, and tight credit. Business spending on equipment and software is rising, though less rapidly than earlier in the year, while investment in nonresidential structures continues to be weak. Employers remain reluctant to add to payrolls. Housing starts continue to be depressed. Longer-term inflation expectations have remained stable, but measures of underlying inflation have trended lower in recent quarters.

Economic reports during the month support some of this view and point to the possibility that things could be improving. While the unemployment rate remained unchanged at 9.6%, non-farm payrolls increased by 151,000 jobs. The consumer's attitude was likely improved with increases in personal income, which showed up in improvement in personal spending, retail sales, consumer confidence and consumer credit. Businesses increased construction spending and increased factory orders.

As indicated earlier, interest rates moved higher during the month largely due to improving prospects for the economy. Short-term rates were up 5 to 15 basis points, while long-term rates rose 20 to 35 basis points.

Given the current interest rate environment, we anticipate the County's yield to drop slightly. Further, we continue to seek investment opportunities in order to optimize earnings (U. S. Treasury Market graph attached).

A listing of market values provided by our custodian, Wells Fargo Bank, for all investments for the month ending November 30, 2010, as well as a separate listing of the transactions for the month of November, is attached. GASB Statement No. 31 states that variances between the cost of investments and the fair value of investments shall not be considered budgetary resources or uses of resources unless the value of investments is permanently impaired because of decreased issuer creditworthiness or it is determined that the Treasurer be unable to hold investments to maturity.

The following spreadsheets are also attached:

- Transactions for the month of November
